Deputy Head Teacher Vacancy September 2017:
The Marist Catholic Primary School, West Byfleet, Surrey. Information available at: www.marist.surrey.sch.uk/recruitment.

The May Fayre is something bigger than the event on the Rye. It is a pulling together of ideas and effort which happens for months before the Bank Holiday. So to those whom you never saw but who were working on the project, to those who drove, manhandled, set-up, took-down, who cooked or baked, who donated things to sell, who ran stalls or entertainments, counted takings, folded Draw tickets, gave a day-long commentary, donated goods or services, who advertised or filmed or photographed, who looked after PR or made the VIPs welcome, the Parish owes a big thank-you. The ball part figure will be announced at the Masses today. A list of takings is on the notice board in the porch. So, thanks to everyone who attended and joined in the fun and who participated in any way whatsoever.

Weekday Masses 8th – 12th May: Please note that there will be no Weekday Mass/Service here on Tues. Thur. and Fri. Please see the Mission Newsletter for other weekday services.

Lost Property found at May Fayre: A silver pyx in a soft brown felt case. A bag of produce probably bought from the grocery stall and left by accident in the cake tent. Available from the sacristy any morning when there is Mass, or by telephone enquiry at other times (HW 523969)

"Invitations to Ministries Service, 14th May - If you are on one of or various rotas or do anything for the Church, then there should be an envelope for you in the box on the back table with your name - one only, we hope, though many of you would fit into more than one category ! Please take it home, and take one for anyone you know who won't get theirs by this method. It'd be helpful if you could let us know if you're going to come - parish e-mail or phone as above."
