Wycombe Refugee Partnership helps destitute refugee families with legal status to resettle and build a new life in High Wycombe. Our tenth family is about to arrive: a couple and their eight-year-old son. They are Christians who have fled persecution in Iran. We are looking to rent a house or flat for them with at least one bedroom, ideally at no more than £800 per month. Does anyone have such a property to let or know someone who does? Failing that, would anyone be willing to accept the little family as house guests on a short-term basis until we can move them into a suitable property?

We have an urgent need for a new Flower Arranger for the Sunday Masses etc. One of the team has suffered an injury and will be incapacitated for a few months. Please respond to the Parish e-mail if you can assist. staugustines.hw@gmail.com
